

2020 Repatriation Grant Application

For questions regarding the 2020 Repatriation Grant, or for general assistance with your application, please contact us at bcma@museumsassn.bc.ca or phone 250.356.5700.

About the 2020 Repatriation Grant

The 2020 Repatriation Grants are for BC First Nations and Indigenous organizations and support the repatriation of ancestors, cultural property, and intangible cultural heritage.

The BCMA respectfully acknowledges the decades of work and advocacy Indigenous leaders and communities have undertaken to support the return of their ancestors and cultural patrimony. We thank the BC Government for their support of the 2020 Repatriation Grant and extend appreciation to the Royal BC Museum and the BCMA Indigenous Advisory Committee for their expertise, time, ideas, partnership, and guidance.

We encourage online applications but you are also welcome to fill out this form and mail your application.

Support Materials

You will be required to attach a completed budget as part of your application. A budget template is available on our website. Please note that administrative costs may not exceed 10% of your total budget.

A letter of support or BCR from the associated Tribal Council or Band Council is required as a component of your application. Additional letters of support from community members, Elder's Council, or other stakeholder partners, are encouraged. A maximum of 3 letters are permitted per application.

Applications for the 2020 Repatriation Grant open on September 8, 2020. The deadline for applications is 11:59 pm on January 15, or until available 2020 funds are allocated.

For questions regarding the 2020 Repatriation Grant, or for general assistance with your application, please contact us at bcma@museumsassn.bc.ca or phone 250.356.5700.
